

Hobart, the capital of Australia's island state Tasmania, is a city brimming with heritage charm, culture and a thriving dining scene.

ANTARCTICA RESEARCH CENTRES

Hobart is home to Australia's national Antarctic program research efforts. The University of Tasmania's Institute for Marine and Antarctic Studies (IMAS) and the Commonwealth Scientific and Industrial Research Organisation (CSIRO) Oceans and Atmosphere Flagship are both situated in purpose-built facilities on the Hobart waterfront. They support more than 800 scientists and technical staff, making Hobart the world's largest centre of cold climate expertise and research.
